A woman may have a voice as sweet as music on the water, and her babe will cry on. But give it sugar it stops like an T AM receiving and opening a large and com organ when pence are thrown. For sugar a child will become either the angel or DRY GOODS, the imp. Have you seen boys in a mo-lasses cask? They flock to it as cats do to valerian. Isn't that proof that children have no more hearts than young cabbages have? Feed them, and they grow. you are fond of children (you may be) carry "sweet stuff" with you, and they will crowd you like flies to a grocer's window and follow you as dogs do a cat' meat barrow. Only don't tell me they love you-that's all.

in his study, a man entered, who at once as I can sell them as low as they can be bought propitiated him under the provocation of an unexpected interruption, by telling him that he had called under great distress of mind. "Sit down, sir, be good enough to be seated," said Dr. Chalmers, turning eagerly and full of interest from his wri- DRUGS, MEDICINES, ting table. The visitor explained to him that he was troubled about the divine origin of the Christian religion, and being kindly questioned as to what these were, he gave among others what is said in the Bible about Melchisedec, being without father or mother, &c. Patiently and anxiously Dr. C. sought to clear away each successive difficulty as it was stated Expressing himself as if greatly relieved in mind, imagining that he had gained his end, "Doctor," said the visitor, "I am in great want of a little money at present, and perhaps you can help me in that way.' At once the object of his visit was seen. A perfect tornado of indignation burst upon the deceiver, driving him in quick retreat from the study to the street door, these words escaping him among others, "Not a penny, sir! not a penny! It's too bad! And to burden your hypocrisy upon the shoulders of Melchisedec!"

In the current number of the Westminister Review, Mr. Carlyle relates the following anecdote of Moritz, one of the electors of Saxony, an immensely strong man: Walking once in the streets of London. he came into collision with a dustman, who perhaps had splashed him with his mud shovel or the like. Dustman would make no apology; willing to try a round at boxing instead. Moritz grasps him suddenly by the back of the breeches, whirls him aloft, in horizontal position, pitches him into his mud cart, and walks OPERATE by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action. They remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other obstructions of the stomach, but the stomach of the stomach o Uniternal viscera to purify the blood and stimalate it into healthy action. They remove the obstructions of the stemach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, and, by restoring their irregular action to health, correct, wherever they exist, such detangements as the first causes of disease. An extensive trial of their virtues, by Professon, Physicians, and Patients, has shown cures of dangerous diseases almost beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untrula. Their certificates are published in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named are pleased to furnish free to all inquiring.

Annexed we give Directious for their use in the complaints which they have been found to cure.

FOR COSTIVANUES.—Take one or two Pills, or such quantity as to gently move the bowels. Costiveness is frequently the aggravating cause of PILES, and the cure of one complaint is the cure of both. No person can feel well while under a costive habit of body. Hence it should be, as it can be, promptly relieved.

FOR DYSPERSIA, which is sometimes the cause of Costiveness, and always uncomfortable, take mild doses—from one to four—to stimulate the stomach and liver into healthy action. They will do it, and the hearthurn, bodyburn, and somburn of dyspeptia will rapidly disappear. When it has gone, don't forget what cured you.

For a Foul Stomack, or Morbid Inaction of the spirits and bad health, take from four to eight Pills at first, and smaller doses afterwards, until activity and attength is restored to the system.

Boscels, which produces general depression of the spirits and bad health, take from four to eight Fills at first, and smaller doses afterwards, until activity and attength is restored to the system.

For Nervousses, Sick Headacha, Naura, Pains in the Stomesh, Back, or Side, take from four to eight pills on going to bed. If they do not operate sufficiently, take more the next day until they do. These complaints will be swept out from the system. Don't wear these and their kindred disorders are your stomach is foul.

For hortla, Envilvana, and all Disease of the Size, take the Pills freely and frequently, to keep the bowels open. The eruptions will generally soon begin to diminish and disappear. Many de adful aleers and sores have been healed up by the purging and purifying effect of these Fills, and some disquating diseases which seemed to saturate the whole system have completely yielded to their influence, leaving the sufferer in perfect health. Patients' your duty to society forbids that you should parade yourself around the world covered with pimples, blotches, ulcera, sores, and all or any of the unclean diseases of the skin, because your system wants cleansing.

To Putility the Blood, they are the best medicine ever discovered. They should be taken freely and frequently, and the impurities which sow the seeds of incurable diseases will be swept out of the system like chaff before the wind. By this property they do as much good in preventing sickness as by the remarkable cures which they are making every where.

Liven Complaint, Jaunders, and all Bisome Liven Complaints.

LIVER COMPLAINT, JAUNDICE, and all Biscon Affections, arise from some derangement—either torpidity congestion, or obstructions of the Liver. Torpidity and congestion within the bile and reader it unfit for digestion. This is disastrous to the health, and the constitution is frequently undermined by no other cause. Indigestion is the symptom. Obstruction of the duct which empties the bile into the stomach causes the bile to overflow into the blood. This produces Jaundice, with a long and dangerous train of evils. Contiveness, or alternately contiveness and diarrhess, prevails. Fererish symptoms, languor, low spirits, weariness, restlessness, and melancholy, with sometimes inability to sleep, and sometimes great drowsiness; sometimes there is severe pain in the side; the skin and the white of the eyes become a greenish yellow; the stomach acid; the bowels sore to the touch; the whole system irritable, with a tendency to fever, which may turn to bilious fever, bilious colic, bilious diarrhess, dysentery, &c. A medium does of three or four Pills taken at night, followed by two or three in the morning, and repeated a few days, will remove the cause of all these troubles. It is wicked to suffer such pains when you can cure them for 25 cents.

names are on the lists referred to, his commissions will uniformly be five per cent. on the amount recovered. His commissions in other cases will be a matter of special contract.
